

I strongly object to these proposed rule changes. It is clear, once they are informed, the overwhelming majority of U.S. citizens are against any further consolidation of media. It is also clear that the commissioners in favor of the changes are moving quickly, before most people become aware of the implications.

A delay for further comment harms no one. I urge the commissioners to move the proposed June 2 date.

Kent Lucas